

FRONT RANGE AGILITY CLUB
YOUTH PROGRAM APPLICATION

Application Guidelines

Applicants must live in Colorado or Wyoming, be 18 years of age or younger.

Applicants must be the primary handler for the dog in agility events. i.e. the dog must be handled by the Junior applicant more than 50% of the time.

Each applicant is eligible to receive $130 per calendar year and may re-apply until that amount is reached.

Money awarded to the applicant is to be used solely for agility lessons or agility seminars. Checks will be made out to the sponsoring organization or instructor.

If applicant is unable to compete or take a lesson, or lessons after receiving this money, he or she will reimburse FRAC for that amount with 30 days of the missed lesson or event, and notify the FRAC secretary if this occurs.

Approval will take 4-8 weeks to process and are awarded at the discretion of the Program Coordinator and the Board of Directors.

Questions may be directed toward Martha Faulk, Program Coordinator, at marthfaulk@msn.com or 970-282-0966.

Applications should be mailed to Martha Faulk, 2825 Skimmerhorn Street, Fort Collins CO 80526.
